Greetings HPOA Board,

I know the councilmember would appreciate seeing some familiar faces at the launch of the scramble crosswalk Sunday. Might be a fun thing to bring friends or family to.

I'll be en route Montana...or I would be there!

Kerry

Neighbors,

Please see the attached official invitation for you and any other friends and neighbors who are interested in joining us on Sunday as we inaugurate the "scramble" crosswalk at Hollywood & Highland.

We hope to see you at 1 PM on Sunday!

Thanks,

Please join Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell, GM Seleta Reynolds (LA Department of Transportation) and community members and leaders on Sunday, November 15, 2015 at 1:00 PM as we celebrate the installation of the brand-new 'scramble' crosswalk at the intersection of Hollywood Boulevard and Highland Avenue.

The event will begin on the steps facing Hollywood Boulevard at the Hollywood & Highland Center, 6801 Hollywood Blvd, followed by a ceremonial walk across the intersection. Students from the Hollywood High School marching band and ROTC cadets will join us as part of the festivities.

A 'scramble' is a crossing system that allows everyone to cross from all intersections in every direction, including diagonally, at the same time. Last August, LADOT agreed to implement this major improvement that will increase safety at one of the busiest intersections in Los Angeles.

Users are encouraged to spread the word about this new safety feature on social media using the hashtag #HollywoodScramble.

Please let me know if you are able to join us. I hope to see you on Sunday!

Sincerely,
